

April Newsletter

April Events

- 04/08–04/12
 - Week of the Young Child
- 04/09/2024
 - Laundry Love
- 04/15/2024
 - Outdoor Environments Training
- 04/20/2024
 - Bug-a-Palooza
- 04/25/2024
 - Provider Support Group

Story Walk Update

Due to upcoming construction happening in the Family and Child Resource Center parking lot/story walk trail, we are putting a hold on our story walk. We are unsure how long the construction project may take, but will post on our facebook page once we are able to resume.

WEEK OF THE YOUNG CHILD

SCHEDULE

MONDAY
04/08/2024

Music Monday:
Llama Llama
Hoppity Hop

TUESDAY
04/09/2024

Tasty Tuesday:
Llama Llama
Yum Yum Yum!

WEDNESDAY
04/10/2024

Work Together
Wednesday:
Llama Llama
Time to Share

THURSDAY
04/11/2024

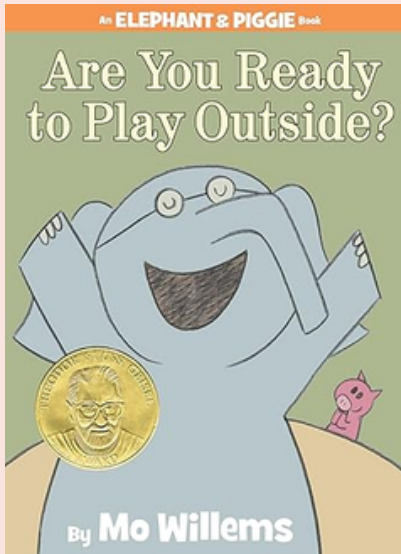

Artsy Thursday:
Llama Llama
Shapes

FRIDAY
04/12/2024

Family Friday:
Llama Llama
Misses Mama

STORYTIME BOOK OF THE MONTH

Are You Ready to Play Outside?

By: Mo Willems

Mo Willems book, “Are You Ready to Play Outside?” is a book you can’t help but wonder what will come next! Elephant and Piggie are ready to play outside, but then it starts raining. Oh no! Will Elephant and Piggie still be able to enjoy their time outside?

Benefits of Outdoor Play

- 1) It invites children to learn science.
- 2) It creates opportunities for social interaction and collaboration.
- 3) It promotes physical health.
- 4) It invites contexts for learning.
- 5) It promotes better sleep.
- 6) It gives children a chance to take appropriate risks.
- 7) It may lead to better learning outcomes when they return to other activities.
- 8) It supports STEM skills.
- 9) It anchors children to the real world.